From Problem to Product → Building B2B SaaS That Delivers | GenAI, CRM, Dashboards | Driving Measurable Outcomes
Hyderabad, Telangana, India

Summary

Product Manager with 5+ years in B2B SaaS who enjoys the journey through the “Ideas → Action → Product” cycle — uncovering real user problems and turning them into impactful solutions.

I focus on clarity in complexity, asking the right questions, and collaborating across teams to build products that drive measurable results.

Some highlights:
- Reduced customer response time by 20% through GenAI integration
- Delivered dashboards that boosted sales productivity and forecasting accuracy by 20%
- Improved operational efficiency by 30% with automation and custom tools

Passionate about AI, data-driven strategy, and solving problems that matter.

If you’re looking for a curious, outcome-focused product leader — let’s connect.
